SPONSOR GUIDELINES & AGREEMENT

In order to uphold the mission of Aging Ahead and protect the privacy and well-being of our participants, we require boosters abide by and agree to the following guidelines:

- Boosters are prohibited from collecting participant contact information, including in exchange for any service, goods, raffles and prize drawings.
- Boosters are prohibited from making presentations and/or providing advice as part of their booster activity.
- Boosters are prohibited from selling any product or service at Agency locations.
- Boosters are prohibited from distributing business cards/brochures to participants; however, materials may be made available on the day of the program for participants to voluntarily collect.
- Aging Ahead does not endorse sponsoring organizations.

I have voluntarily read and agree to follow all of the guidelines stated in this agreement. Violation of any terms of this agreement may result in immediate discontinuation of our booster relationship.
